HUGE SLASH IN FEDERAL TAXES NOW ADVOCATED

Smoot Suggests Plan to Reduce Revenue Half
Billion Dollars

INTERVIEWS MELLON

Would Exempt Incomes
Under $2,000 From
Payment

Washington, Oct. 18.—A half-billion-dollar cut in tax revenue is planned by Reed Smoot, ranking Republican on the senate finance committee, he revealed at the white house.

Senator Smoot proposes a reduction of surtaxes from the maximum of 50 per cent to 33 1-3 per cent; exemption from taxation of incomes below $2,000 and probably $3,000; the scaling off of $100,000,000 on the taxes of incomes from $3,000 to $6,000, and of another hundred million on the incomes of $6,000 to $10,000; the elimination of the so-called discriminatory tax, and a reduction of $75,000,000 on certain special taxes.

Senator Smoot held a long conference on the subject of tax reduction with Secretary of the Treasury Mellon prior to calling on President Coolidge. The reduction of the maximum surtax rate, it was intimated, was in the nature of a compromise with Secretary Mellon, who held that the rate should be 25 per cent. Mr. Smoot believes that this reduction would be found too great if other reductions are to be made.

Senator Smoot asserted that he was in thorough accord with Secretary Mellon in the idea of making the reduction as large as possible. He added that if would actually mean more revenue for the government, as it would check the flood of investment in tax free securities and put vast sums into profitable and taxable enterprises. This, it was stated, would more than offset what would appear to be a loss.

The reduction in the surtax rates with the other reductions named would cut the government's revenue about half a billion annually, the senator said, but, he added, the saving would in no way embarrass the budget bureau unless congress authorizes some unusual appropriations. The sum actually can be saved under the present scheme of economies in the government, he believes.

Senator Smoot pointed out, however, that revision of the taxes should not be undertaken at once. He stated that it would prove necessary to make a more careful survey of the schedule, and that this can not be completed for several months. Before effecting any "weeping changes," he pointed out, it will, of course, be necessary to learn what congress proposes to authorize in the way of expenditures, and, if the present appropriations are exceeded, how the money is to be raised.

FORD TOO VALUABLE FOR PRESIDENT IS EDISON'S OPINION

New York, Oct. 18.—Henry Ford is too valuable to the country as an industrialist to be elected president, Thomas A. Edison said. "It might spoil him," the East Orange wonder worker added in an address, at the opening of the annual electrical and industrial exposition. Edison cited the eight factories that Ford operates on the River Rouge in Michigan, where men and women work at good wages, but still have time to raise gardens and crops, was one reason why Ford should not be diverted from his present work to that of fussing with congress over postmaster jobs and pork barrels. "What's the matter with that system?" he asked of Ford's works plan. "If he does that long enough maybe the whole of industry will try it and things will be better all around. But I doubt if that system could be legislated into effect. It has to grow."

UTILITIES BOARD ENJOINED

Columbus, Oct. 18.—The Ohio public utilities commission was enjoined from enforcing its order requiring the Ohio Bell Telephone company to unify telephone service in Canton by Oct. 19, 1923, under the present Bell rates, by Judge Sater of the United States district court. The hearing will be in Columbus Oct. 27. The confiscation of property in violation of its rights under the federal constitution is charged by the company.

PROHIBITION ISSUE SPLITS WIDE OPEN GOVERNORS' CONFERENCE

West Baden Springs, Indiana, Oct. 18.—Prohibition today split wide open the governors' conference. In spirited discussions, showing aside those listed in the regular schedule for the meeting—taxation and agricultural relief—lines were drawn sharply between the so-called dry and liberal state executives on the liquor law issue. This subject became the principal theme of the conference.

On all sides, particularly informal gatherings, the national dry act and the lat and order conference with President Coolidge at the White House Saturday were the leading topics of debate.

Wide confusion existed among the state chiefs on the challenge of Governor Pinchot, of Pennsylvania, charging President Coolidge personally with full responsibility for the enforcement of the dry law.

In characteristic Rooseveltian fashion, the Pennsylvania governor, who acted as spokesmen for the "bone dry" element, denounced the present system of enforcement and demanded that in order to make America thoroughly arid, the federal administration extend greater and more harmonious cooperation to state agencies in running down bootlegging and suppressing illicit booze traffic.

He launched verbal rights and lefts at the methods used by the prohibition unit in Washington, in issuing liquor withdrawal permits. Thousands of the permits, he said, are being forged, with the result that liquor is being flooded over the country in violation of the laws. To ask the states to stop this traffic, unless more strenuous efforts are made to wipe out faking, he declared "imposes a burden upon the states that is stupendous."

Pinchot promised to lay bare this condition to President Coolidge at the White House gathering with the

SNAP SHOTS

James B. McLachlan, former secretary of the United Mine Workers, District No. 26, was found guilty of seditious libel for publishing an inflammatory letter during the recent strike of steel and coal workers in Nova Scotia.

John Weber, 54, farmer, was shot and killed by his son Samuel, 24, at Owensboro, Ky.

Robert Sanders, 30, one of three men held at San Bernardino, Cal., has confessed to the murder of Patrolman David H. Crowther of Salt Lake City.

National council of Congregational churches went on record with few dissenting votes as approving the merger of Presbyterian and Congregational churches in the United States.

additional warning that he "intended to speak straight from the shoulder." The more liberal forces around Gov. Parker of Louisiana, when Pinchot remarked that the "fight against liquor is just begun," Parker prophesied that "prohibition seems certain to become the major issue in the 1924 presidential campaign and in both parties."

Parker held little hope for "100 per cent enforcement." He thought that the most suitable way to rid the country of "the prohibition mess" would be to repeal the Volstead act to permit manufacture of wine and beer, this being sanctioned under strictest governmental supervision.

FORMER PREMIER DECLARES EUROPE IS NOW EXHAUSTED

Chicago, Oct. 18.—David Lloyd George spoke on reparations in his address at the International amphitheater here.

The former premier, who had been confined to his hotel, recovering from a cold, was refreshed by his long rest. An audience of 12,000 jammed the hall.

Launching into his speech the former premier declared that Europe is suffering from exhaustion and that the most serious disturbance now is the question of reparations. "Europe is like a ragged man, standing in front of a plate-glass window of a well stocked store," he said.

Lloyd George announced that Britain is pressing for a reasonable settlement with Germany, had no "special interest in being tender to Germany," but because to follow harsh methods and demand more from Germany is able to pay "is the worst way of attaining that end."

Lloyd George's address was based on the theme that before further steps are taken to force reparations from Germany there should be an examination by a commission of experts to determine Germany's ability to pay.

Apparently none the worse for his appearance before the greatest audience of his American trip thus far, David Lloyd George today took up the itinerary which was threatened by the slight illness brought on by fatigue. His program called for a visit to the tomb of Abraham Lincoln at Springfield, Illinois, the party leaving Chicago on its special train at 10 a. m. continuing to St. Louis, next stop of the journey.

CAUGHT IN ELEVATOR SHAFT

Cleveland, Oct. 18.—While repairing an elevator at the seventh floor of the Ulmer building, Raymond Fenzel, 25, assistant engineer at the building, was killed when his head was caught and crushed in the door of the lift.

CARLYLE GARAGE WITH 18 AUTOS ARE DESTROYED

Blaze Early Thursday
Morning Damages Telephone Service

ORIGIN IS UNKNOWN

Fire is Discovered at
1:30—Nearby Buildings Saved.

Fire destroyed the Ed Carlyle garage, Xenia and Corry streets, Yellow Springs, early Thursday morning, burning up 18 automobiles and ruining telephone service in the village, occasioning a loss estimated at $30,000.

The garage building, a frame structure owned by C. S. Shelton, was burned to the ground with its entire contents, only ashes marking the place where it stood Thursday. Heroic work on the part of the Yellow Springs Fire Department under Chief Perry Hackett, saved the Littleton building and the Dr. William Haffner building across the street, from destruction.

Cables of the Ohio Bell Telephone Company were burned through impairing wire service in and out of the village. The Littleton building in which the telephone exchange is located on the second floor, was scorched so intensely by the heat that the window glass melted and dropped from its sashes, driving Mrs. Pearl Lingo, night operator, from the switchboard after she had turned in the alarm.

The origin of the conflagration is unknown conjecture placing the cause at a short circuit of wires in an automobile or a carelessly thrown cigarette or cigar stub. The blaze was discovered at 1:30 o'clock by Maurice Littleton, who notified Mrs. Lingo in the exchange. She turned in the alarm that brought the fire department on the scene. No help from outside fire departments was sought.

Firemen confined the fire to the garage building and kept a continual play of water on the Littleton and Haffner buildings to prevent them breaking into flames. Mrs. Lingo stayed at her post in the exchange until the windows fell out, when she was forced to flee. Of the automobiles burned up in the garage, less than half were insured.

The following machines were destroyed: a Ford truck and a Fordson tractor, owned by the village of Yellow Springs; a service truck owned by John Sulder; a Ford sedan owned by Leon Reid; a Marmon touring car, owned by H. F. Mumma; a Ford coupe owned by T. W. Mook; a Studebaker roadster owned by Malcolm Grinnell; a Ford truck owned by William Glosinger; a Ford coupe owned by Chas. Payne; a Ford coupe owned by John Phillips; a Reo touring car owned by W. A. Alexander; a Ford roadster owned by Gayle Price; a Ford special speedster owned by Herman Holmes; a Paige touring car owned by John Holland and four machines owned by Ed Carlyle, proprietor of the garage, including one new Chevrolet truck. Carlyle is agent for the Chevrolet car in the village.

Carlyle's loss was not covered by insurance, but C. S. Shelton, owner of the building, was almost entirely protected. He announced Thursday he would erect another building on the site.

Loss to the telephone company was estimated at $2,000 Thursday, including burned out cables and wires. When service was impaired by the fire, line men were sent to the village at 4 o'clock Thursday morning and by day-light, toll service was repaired for use. Full service was expected to be resumed some time Thursday.

Because the fire burned through the cable of the Springfield an Xenia Traction Company car service was held up until 7:40 o'clock, pending repair of the line.

EXPECT ARRESTS IN BOMBING OUTRAGE

Stuebenville, O., Oct. 18.—"We expect arrests," was the reply of Jefferson County officials today to the protests lodged with Governor Vic Donahey by residents of Smithfield that the recent bombing of the home of Marshal Charles Pearce was not being investigated.

Prosecuting Attorney Pearce and Sheriff Edward Lucas denied that action of the Smithfield residents was "uncalled for" and that they acted without knowledge of the facts.

DUKE IS HELD FOR DEBT SETTLEMENT

Duke of Manchester.

William Angus Drago Montague, Duke of Manchester, has been held in Montreal, Can., on a writ prohibiting him from leaving the country until he settles a board bill of $1,438 owed to the Hotel Mount Royal. The hotel took the action when it was reported he intended sailing for England. The Duke's mother was the beautiful Consuela de Valle, of Ravensworth, La., and his wife, Miss Helen Zimmermann, of Cincinnati.

ADMINISTRATION'S PLANS FOR AIDING FARMER OPPOSED

Washington, Oct. 18.—The administration's plans for relieving farm distress in the wheat belt are scheduled for tough sledding in the new Congress. This became certain today when Democratic and Republican farm bloc members apparently joined hands to attack the government relief program.

Senator Duncan U. Fletcher of Florida, voiced a Democratic protest against the Coolidge plan for organizing cooperative marketing associations which are to be the basis of government farm relief. His attack came only 24 hours after the plan was condemned by Senator Edwin F. Ladd, Republican, of North Dakota. Both are prominent farm bloc members.

While Democrats and Republicans alike offered their own solutions for farm depression both were emphatic in predicting failure for the administration program. Their attitude indicated a protracted battle will develop in the next Congress over just what to do for the farmer.

ROOT IS PROBABLE AS SUCCESSOR TO COLONEL HARVEY

London, Oct. 13.—Apparently authentic advices from Washington that Elihu Root, former secretary of state, probably would be appointed ambassador to England, succeeding George Harvey, caused much surprise here today. It was generally anticipated that the post would go to Solicitor General James M. Beck who has proclaimed his friendship for England in many speeches.

The foreign office refused to comment, but it was learned that officials regard Root as a man of great ability.

FORMER XENIAN GETS APPOINTMENT

Columbus, O., Oct. 18.—Mrs. Margaret Elton, 53, New Vienna, Clinton county, was appointed matron of the Girls Industrial school, Delaware, by State Welfare Director Harper. She stood highest in the recent civil service examination for the position.

Mrs. Elton taught school in Highland county for 13 years, was five years matron of the Highland county jail, and for nine years was chief matron of the Soldiers and Sailors Orphans Home, Xenia, while her husband, J. P. Elton was superintendent.

CHICAGO ATTORNEY QUILTS CASE

New York Oct. 18.—The Stokes divorce case produced its daily sensation when Charles Erbstein, Mrs. Helen Elwood Stokes' Chicago attorney, quit the case, abruptly walking from the courtroom after a run-in with Samuel Untermyer, chief of her New York counsel.

DELAY IN REPARATIONS ISSUE FEARED; MORE RED ACTIVITIES IN NATION

Dictator Declares War on Radical Saxony and Moves
Troops Into That State to Disarm Communist Bands Operating There.

Berlin, Oct. 18.—Ominous clouds gathered low over Germany today pointing the way to grave developments in the immediate future.

Pessimism has been deepened by the summary rejection of the government's proposals by France and Belgium. It is feared that the blunt action of the French and Belgians will delay a settlement of the Ruhr reparations issue.

Various disorders were reported from various quarters. Red terror grips Saxony and re-inforcements of Reichswehr are being moved into that state.

Berlin, Oct. 18.—Dictator Stresemann in effect declared war upon "red Saxony."

Twenty-eight battalions of the reichswehr from vicinity of Berlin and other Prussian garrisons are moving to reinforce General Mueller and his fifteen battalions already in Saxony.

That is the answer of Dictator Stresemann to the refusal of Premier Zeigler's communist-socialistic government in Saxony to disband the red army units, who are charged with having created a reign of terror throughout all Saxony.

The Saxon government's defiance of Berlin authority was further emphasized by a speech made by the new communist minister of finance, Boettcher, in which he declared that a "red dictatorship is the only salvation of Germany."

At a special session of the Berlin cabinet, Stresemann announced his determination to enforce the authority of the central government once for all, and to suppress the irresponsible, radical and irregular military organizations in Saxony which are openly countenanced by the Saxon cabinet in defiance of Berlin.

Boettcher, it is reported, also ordered all Saxon bankers to confer with him with a view of levying a compulsory loan. It is asserted that not a single banker appeared in response to the demand.

Reports received by the Berlin government that a number of leading industrial captains in Saxony had been arrested by red communist detachments to be held as hostages, added to the determination of Stresemann to put an end to such conditions of affairs in Saxony.

Reports from Dresden say that Premier Zeigler declared in the Saxon diet that he would not comply with any of General Mueller's demands. Central organizations of the Saxon trades unions are said to have announced that they would tear up the railway tracks and declare a general strike if General Mueller attempts to move the reichswehr.

Warned by hunger demonstrations and plunderings in numerous cities by mobs of unemployed, which only the most energetic action by the police prevented from ending in serious bloodshed and greater looting, city and Prussian state authorities are rushing measures to relieve the most pressing cases of want.

Additional soup kitchens are to be established at once at which the hungry can get food free or at nominal prices if they can pay anything. All persons receiving poverty doles are each to receive a special dole of one billion marks, which, however, is less than 20 cents. Feeding children in public schools at public expense is to be resumed immediately. A special supply of free milk for infants and prospective mothers is to begin Monday. Cold storage meats will be sold by government agencies below the market price.

APPOINTMENT MADE

Columbus, Oct. 18.—Attorney Herman A. Schafer, Bridgeport, today was appointed head of the new bus department in the State Utilities Commission by State Commerce Director Locher. The salary is $3,000 a year.

The appointment is provisional, subject to a civil service examination.

COUPLE FATALLY INJURED

Toledo, Oct. 18.—Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Warner of Tiffin, O., were probably fatally injured and four others severely injured when a city car ran into their auto as the party was entering the city. Harry Gallimore of Cleveland, who was repairing his auto along the side of the road, witnessed the accident. He was showered with glass.

Berlin, Oct. 18.—Convinced that France is determined to keep the Ruhr and Rhineland rather than get reparations, Chancellor Stresemann, through his personal organ, Die Zeit, issued a deft to France and announced that Germany refuses to resume the reparations coal payments.

"From the negotiations of the last few days," says Die Zeit, "France must have realized that the German government declines to have its political decisions, either in regard to the Ruhr or reparations, dictated from Paris and Brussels. The German government will be guided only by German interests and nothing else. No dictation will change its course."

The occupation forces are preparing to stay for a long time. The returning railway workers have been asked to work for an "independent" Rhine republic and to contribute to funds for the establishment of the republic.

TRUMP CARD IN DIVORCE TRIAL USED BY STOKES

Former U. S. Minister To Roumania Called to
the Stand

New York, Oct. 18.—The trump card of W. E. D. Stokes, 73 year old millionaire, was played today in his suit to divorce his beautiful young wife, Helen Elwood Stokes.

Horace G. Knowles, former United States minister to Roumania, Bolivia and Peru, swore that "to the best of his knowledge and belief," he saw the titian-haired defendant in Wallace's Fifth avenue apartment.

Edgar T. Wallace, San Francisco oil man, named by Stokes as the co-respondent who won the affections of pretty Mrs. Helen Elwood Stokes, wife of the aged millionaire, decided to fight back. After five years of silence, other than that denial of Stokes' charges, Wallace today commissioned Charles Erbstein, Chicago lawyer, associated with Samuel Untermyer in Mrs. Stokes' defense, to "act."

Wallace telegraphic instructions to Erbstein were brief.

"Take any action you deem best," he instructed the attorney.

Erbstein announced he would await the outcome of the present divorce suit, before moving in Wallace's behalf. It was expected, however, that Erbstein would join Untermyer in a demand on District Attorney J. A. Banton, of New York, to call a grand jury probe of Stokes' activities in the case with a view to securing indictments on a charge of conspiracy to defame "not only Mrs. Stokes, but Wallace as well."

AUTO DRIVES INTO ENGINE; FOUR HURT

Akron, O., Oct. 18.—An automobile whose driver, James Bands, was more than half asleep, ran into a moving B. and O. engine at Krumroy road crossing early this morning.

Eva Hinsman, 20, living at a local hotel, the only girl in the car, suffered a fractured skull and is in city hospital. Bands, Louis Smith, 22 and Charles Wright, 21 all of Akron, were slightly injured.

The youths were arrested. They told Deputy Sheriff Harry Rawlings the girl was induced by them to leave another auto in which she was riding with a male companion. The party of four then drove around most of the night with no particular objective. About 4 o'clock, while all of them dozed in the car, it collided with the engine, which was slowly moving across the road.

INJUNCTION SUITS MAY BE FILED IN GAS SITUATION

Possibility that injunction suits may be resorted to in order to prevent the Logan Natural Gas Company from carrying out its threat to refuse renewal of its contract with the Jantha Light and Fuel Company and thus keep many towns and villages from receiving gas this winter, is now being expressed.

Refusal to renew the contract would cut off the gas supply to Osborn, Fairfield and Yellow Springs in Greene County, Greenville in Darke County, Eaton in Preble County and Brookville, in Montgomery County. The present contract will expire October 31, and if not renewed, the gas supplies will be cut off then.

City Solicitor J. A. Finney of this city, who is also counsel for the village of Yellow Springs, believes the courts would sustain an injunction to prevent the gas shortage, if that plan is resorted to. Greene County Commissioners granted the Logan Company a franchise to cross county boundaries in 1903, with the stipulation the company should furnish gas to the Greene County villages which are now threatened to be left without gas if the refusal to renew the contract is carried out.

Renewal of the present contract several years ago, resulted in the Jantha Company being forced to raise its rate to consumers in Greene County so that gas users in Osborn, Fairfield and Yellow Springs now pay more for natural gas than any other places in the county. Phillip Nash, dean of Antioch College, said the college would be forced to build a plant to manufacture gas for domestic purposes if the natural supply is shut off.

Morris D. Rice, Osborn attorney, is counsel for the villages of Osborn and Fairfield. Cedarville is also facing a serious gas question with the ultimatum presented the village council by pony, that an increased rate for the pony, that an increased rate for the first thousand feet of gas would have to be approved by the council or the supply suspended.

The company asks passage of an ordinance fixing a minimum price of 95 cents instead of 50 cents for the first thousand feet, to take care of service expenses to small consumers. Citizens protested against passage of the ordinance and the council tabled the measure. Representatives of the gas company then set the regulator for Cedarville at only three ounces pressure and the village has suffered from low gas. The proposition is the same as presented to the Xenia City Commission some time ago. The commission here tabled the proposed ordinance without action.

Styles BY LENORE

Black silk crepe, simply treated with galloon embroidered in magenta and gold, applied to the center front of the frock and defining the armholes—loose pleated panels at the sides and long sleeves made graceful with pleating—these are the elements of a dress charmingly suited to the young woman who works or the college girl.

It is a dress which calls to mind a letter which the dean of a well-known college recently sent to the parents of its students. The following is an extract: "Simplicity and modesty in the dress of its women has been a tradition of this college. We have especially that the mothers of our girls will see with us that extremes and eccentricities in style of dress or coiffure are not indicative of the good taste which college women should possess."

TELEPHONE COMPANY PUSH IMPROVEMENTS

Workmen employed by The Ohio Bell Telephone Company on a huge improvement program which will extend the underground cable facilities and eliminate may poles, have extended their operations to the center of the city.

South Detroit street between Main and Second on the west side of the street, is now receiving the attention of workmen who are tearing up the pavement preparatory to laying cables. They have progressed to some extent on South Detroit street from the Pennsylvania Railroad bridge to Home Avenue and Hill streets where new poles have been installed to take care of traffic on those streets and old poles will eventually be removed.

The company expects to consume a year and expend $50,000 in the service improvement program, which includes extension of private lines to outlying sections in the city limits now served by rural lines.

DEFENDANT CHANGES PLEA IN LIQUOR CASE IN COLUMBUS

Wheeling, W. Va. Oct. 18.—A bamboozle was dropped in federal court when Dr. W. D. Frank, of Columbus, O., one of the nine defendants indicted in the alcohol case in federal court, arose and asked permission to change his plea "not guilty" to "guilty." It was granted.

Frank has been without counsel during the trial and steadfastly refused to have the court appoint an attorney to represent him. He is the third to enter pleas. Cecil H. Kerns and Tony Saad having pleaded guilty when the case was called. Defendants in this case include former Wheeling City Treasurer Samuel K. Johnson and other Wheeling men, Martins Ferry and Columbus men.

The taking of evidence began in the case October third, and revolves around disposal of a carload of alcohol here from Hermitage, Tenn.

E. J. Neaton, U. S. chemist, of Columbus, in trial today testified that analysis of gin, seized at Xenia, O., showed it to contain pure grain alcohol. The alcohol used, the government contends, was part of the shipment distributed here by the defendants.

The government will likely not complete its case the present week.

Tony Saad was arrested here under the name of Tony Cyruse, it is believed. Charles Weasel, also involved in the case, and who is believed to have converted the grain alcohol into gin, was also arrested here when a truck load of the booze was captured here enroute from Columbus to Dayton. Both were turned over to federal authorities at Dayton and local officials had no further part to play in the roundup. Kerns, according to Prosecutor J. K. Williamson, was a ring leader in the alcohol conspiracy. Prosecutor Williamson said the investigation was begun in Dayton. He did not know why part of the cases were being tried in Wheeling.

Styles BY LENORE

In discussing clothes for young women, especially as related to school time, a certain Fifth Avenue

shop in one of its large newspaper advertisements made the following statement which is so true, that it seems a service to broadcast the idea. This is the statement:

"There's a Reason"

"Too often is the art of fashion regarded as frivolity at school, and a girl graduates schooled in the arts but unsophisticated in their application to her own life and social success."

It is not at all uncommon to find the college girl actually dowdy in her appearance, and whether the fault is due to a self-complacent indifference to fashion or to ignorance of how to dress becomingly, the fault is equally serious in so far as it not alone detracts from her charm as a woman but often actually handicaps her in her business or social contacts.

Tasteful dressing and a conservative fashionableness are so important an expression of culture that it would seem extremely more desirable, and infinitely fairer, for schools to teach the principles of how to dress cleverly rather than write fashion down into the "Thou Shalt-Nots," as so many of them almost always do.

Lovely green bone acorn button give an individual look to a new kind of navy blue twill frock, which is as practical as it is good-looking. The mannish shirt front and the sleeve trimming are of white crepe de chine, and detachable. The back may be made belted and slightly bloused, or it may be kept as straight as the front.

GIVES TWICE THE HEAT AT HALF THE COST

Burns Oil In Any Stove

A wonderful new burner which works in any coal or wood stove or furnace is the proud achievement of the International Heating Company, 119 South Fourteenth St., Dept. 3368, St. Louis, Mo. This remarkably simple and inexpensive invention heats stove and oven in half the time and does away with all the dirt, ashes and drudgery of using coal or wood. It gives the convenience of city gas at half the cost. It can be put into any stove in a few minutes and gives a tremendous heat controlled by a simple valve. The present high price of coal makes it a great money saver. The manufacturers offer to send this remarkable invention on 30 days trial to any reader of this paper. They are just now making a special low price offer. They also want agents. Write them today.—Adv.

Grid-Dust

By
Ray Higgins

In spite of the popular fallacy that a football team is built around the backfield, we hold to the conclusion that a clever and aggressive center has about as much to do with making a successful grid combination, as any other single unit.

No one can deny that the playing of Eob Yeakley last year and the year before, was a big factor in developing the championship elements that represented Central High. Yeakley was a faithful and accurate passer who could handle himself on the offense, opened huge holes in the line when necessary, but above all, was the type of defensive player that worries an offense to death.

Time after time Yeakley has smeared the play of opponents, by clever charging, often flattening the quarterback before he could pass the ball. His charging resulted in many fumbles, and demoralized the entire attack of opponents.

When Coach "Puss" Ehrenner looked over his proteges for this year's team, he found the development of a center one of his big tasks. He selected Parks, a first year candidate, for the job and the lad showed up well in practice. Under fire however, the freshman showed the lack of experience and weight necessary to take Yeakley's place and the mentor was forced to begin further experimentation.

An experiment last week found Bill Horner at the snapperback's station, and the veteran utility man seemed to have found his place. His passing was careful and he possessed many of the same aggressive qualities on defense that made Yeakley a star. With Horner straddling the ball, it looks as if the coach's worries in that direction were solved for the moment. Parks on the other hand, will probably be strung along as a utility center with a view to developing him into a regular for seasons to come. With three more years ahead of him, the youngster should profit by his early start and experience and solve the

by the
Father of Physical Culture
BERNARR MACFADDEN

The most frequent cause of undue thinness or underweight is the lack of sufficient muscles; exercise and not diet must always remain the true remedy for such lack. But there are cases in both sexes in which there is a lack of both fat and muscle tissue that may have a dietetic origin. In these instances of true under-nutrition, the trouble is usually not a question of insufficient eating, but of an impairment of digestion and assimilation through past dietetic errors. The mere effort to increase the food eaten may, indeed, in such cases have quite the opposite effect than that which is desired.

I want to call attention to one marked distinction between the problem of weight-gaining and the problem of weight reduction. In the case of weight reduction, dieting is a positive and infallible method; if one eats less of the fuel or fat forming foods than the daily functions of the body require, loss of weight must result. But in the contrary case the eating of more food will not always result in an increase of weight. Moreover, while the loss of weight, for those who are too heavy, almost invariably results in physical benefit, the increase of weight on the part of those who are underdeveloped will not be of benefit unless the increase is largely in the form of useful active tissue rather than mere fat.

True under-nutrition may be caused either by lack of sufficient food, a lack of properly proportioned and balanced food, or lack of ability to properly assimilate food eaten. In any case the first thing to do is to see that the diet contains all the necessary food ingredients and contains them in approximately the correct proportions. A diet so selected will usually remedy the trouble without any particular effort to eat a larger quantity than natural hunger calls for. Such diet combined with the general program of hygienic living will remedy all ordinary cases of underweight.

In particular instances where the digestion has been impaired, special diets will be needed to overcome such impairment. For this purpose there is no diet more worthy of a trial than the milk diet. Milk is one of the most digestible of our foods and unquestionably supplies nourishment in a very efficient form for the production of either muscular or fatty tissue. The milk diet has given splendid results in thousands of cases of underweight and malnutrition. Such gains, however, may prove to be of a temporary nature, if the temporary milk diet is not followed by a permanent regime that includes both proper food and sufficient exercise.

The process of gaining weight should be one of growth, not of fattening and the human body grows slowly; even in the most rapid growing period of youth, a gain of twenty pounds a year is a large one.

Greenville High, which team the blue and white eleven will meet at Greenville Friday afternoon, did not open its season until last Saturday when the Darke County aggregation defeated Bradford, 27 to 0.

West Milton had also defeated Bradford this season, and the scores may indicate that Greenville is on a par with the West Milton gang. This infers that Greenville is not out of the class of Burner's charges and with the benefit of the greater experience the Xenia team has, Central High should have an excellent opportunity to break into the win column Friday.

RANDALL MAKING GOOD AS MEMBER OF COLLEGE TEAM

Ernest "Tad" Randall, former Central High School star, seems to be making good on the Wilmington College football team during his first year at that school.

Randall has performed at half-back during the greater part of both games the team has played so far, and seems to have won a permanent berth on the squad. Wilmington, will play Muskingum at New Concord Friday afternoon.

Injuries to Cal Zeigler and Shaw two other backfield men have given further assurance that Randall has earned a position on the team. Shaw, a halfback, sustained a broken leg in the opening game with Purdue University, at Lafayette. Zeigler had the ligaments torn in his knee in the University of Detroit game last week, and will probably be laid up for the rest of the season.

The injuries cut the list of backfield candidates down to "Bab" "Squirt" Fisher, former Ohio Northern captain, Johnny Nowald, Randall, Middleton, Bennett and Winegardner, a new candidate, who showed up this week from Lima, besides several backfield candidates now on the second string squad, who are showing up well.

Randall has shown much improvement over his high school days under the direction of Coach "Shifty" Bolon. Always fast on his feet he is furnishing Wilmington fans with many end run thrills, and has also developed the knack of forward passing while running or off balance. He made nine of these passes good in the Detroit game. The Xenia athlete is tackling deadily this season and has developed into a crack defensive backfield man.

KID GLEASON QUILTS SOX

Chicago, Oct. 18.—William (Kid) Gleason, manager of the Chicago White Sox, handed his resignation as pilot of the club to Owner Charles A. Comiskey and it was accepted. Gleason told Mr. Comiskey that he was discouraged with the showing of the club this year and wanted to get out.

EAST HIGH'S NEW FOOTBALL TEAM TO MAKE DEBUT MONDAY

The absolutely new East High football team will make its debut at Cox Memorial Athletic Field next Monday afternoon meeting the Wilberforce Academy eleven, it is announced.

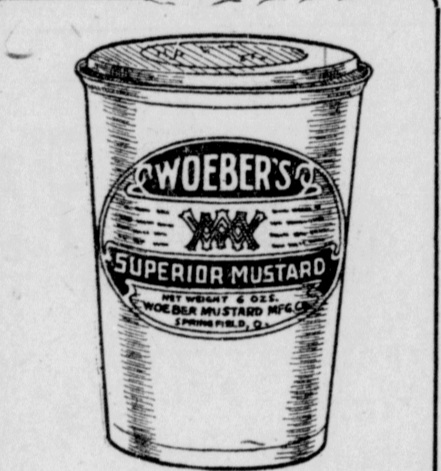

The contest will be the first of a three game series. When East High takes the gridiron Monday it will be the first time that school has attempted to put a gridiron combination in the field, and much interest attends the initial efforts.

The team is coached by Lloyd Lewis Wilberforce University's first track star, who is a member of the faculty at East High. Coach Lewis has been working faithfully with a green squad in an effort to introduce the grid game to East High. His efforts are said to have been fruitful, and even should the new eleven drop a few games this season it is anticipated that the sport will have been successfully introduced.

A number of promising athletes compose the squad. Bernard and Dwight Ware, brothers, are fighting it out for the full backing job. Smith Sayles and Baker are struggling for the two halfbacking positions and Hayes Taylor is the most likely looking candidate for quarterback.

Jones, Cyrus Taylor, Williams and Buford compose a quartet of athletes trying for jobs at the ends. H. Gaines, Charles and Caldwell Kimbro are making active bids for the tackle positions and Byrd, Douglas, Lynn, Phoenix and Thomas are candidates for the guard positions. Dickenson and Raymond are alternating at center.

Through the kindness of school officials and business men, the new

PAPYRUS IN TRIAL WORKOUT COVERS MILE IN 1:38 2-5

New York, 18.—Papyrus, England's champion three-year-old, ran a mile in 1:38 2-5 at Belmont Park this morning in his final workout for the international match race Saturday with Zev, and did it so easily that there was a doleful shaking of heads as the clockers pocketed their watches.

It was less than an exercise gallop. It was just a romp, the English colt merely breezing through the distance with hardly an urge from the hands of Come On Steve O'Donoghue, England's premier jockey.

The performance was so improved that track odds quickly went to even money with little, if any, Zev money in sight. It was the common impression of those who watched the trial that Zev will have to be a greater horse than anyone ever suspected him

AUTOMOBILE GOES 27 MILES ON AIR

A simple self-regulating device that mixes the proper amount of air with gasoline at the proper time has been invented by J. A. Stransky, 91 Third St Pukwana, South Dakota. Mr. Stransky wants agents and is willing to send a sample at his own risk. Write him today.—Adv.

of being to outrun Papyrus Saturday. Papyrus' time for the mile was close to the track record, but there were other features more impressive about the trial than showed on the dial of the timers' watches. In the first place, he ran at least half the distance into the teeth of a headwind. In the second he started very slowly and easily contrary to his wont. He merely allowed Bar Gold, his stablemate, to step out to a three-length lead, then increasing his speed without apparent effort, picked up the other horse at the end of the back stretch, galloped side by side with him along the long turn and then, half way up the stretch, stepped out at his best and passed the judges stand four lengths in front with Donoghue's hand clutching firmly at the reins.

BY SIDNEY THATCHER

"I know what I am talking about when I say that Ohio farmers are making a rapid recovery and do not want any experimental national legislation such as price fixing of wheat. The real 'low down' is that men in public positions are more anxious to obtain the farmer vote than the farmer is desirous of having national legislation enacted to take money out of the federal treasury for performing experiments of doubtful value." Representative James T. Begg.

"In no way is the personality of one more easily reflected than in his speech. Watch your words; watch your expression. Don't spoil the charm you may possess by slovenliness in speech."—Frank H. Burt, Boston, former Superior Court stenographer.

ADULT PROBATION FOR PRISONERS IS URGED AT MEETING

Extension of adult probation work which was strongly advocated by Judge Charles W. Hoffman, Cincinnati, in an address at the Ohio Welfare Conference in Lima, was one of the features which particularly impressed the Rev. William H. Tilford, one of the local delegation attending the conference, who returned home Wednesday afternoon.

Judge Hoffman said that Massachusetts has now more men on probation than it has in prisons. That state and New York do more of the adult probation work than any other states in the union, according to the speaker. He declared that probation will do more toward reforming the man or woman, who is not actually criminal but who committed an offense in the heat of anger, than a prison sentence will do, and will frequently make them valuable members of society.

The Rev. Mr. Tilford said that a number of divisional conferences featured the assembly. Among them was a meeting of superintendents and matrons of county infirmaries which was attended by Superintendent and Mrs. D. E. Crow of the Greene County Infirmary. Representatives of county boards of visitors met with that body for the first time.

The necessity of promoting a better feeling of co-operation between members of county visiting boards and superintendents and matrons of county infirmaries and homes was emphasized at the conference. Another matter which was brought out at the conference was the possibility of securing the co-operation of the social resources of the county for the benefit of inmates of the county infirmaries in an effort to make life pleasanter for them. The Rev. Mr. Tilford was the only local delegate who returned home, others waiting for the conclusion of the meeting.

FARM NEWS OF GREENE COUNTY

TOBACCO GROWERS OF COUNTY TO HEAR ADDRESS BY CO-OPERATIVE ORGANIZER

David Bill, field organizer for the Miami Valley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association, will address the several tobacco growers of the county, at a meeting to be held at Bellbrook Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Mr. Bill will discuss the tobacco growers' contract, and the advantages of selling tobacco co-operatively.

The Miami Valley is the only producers' territory, which is not selling the product through a co-operative pool. Growers over the entire valley are signing the contract, and it is thought to be certain to secure enough signatures to make the pool an assured success.

Greene County has only 32 growers this year, and has the smallest volume of tobacco in the Miami Valley. Every grower in the county is expected to attend the meeting.

OMINOUS CLOUDS THREATEN GERMANY

HUGE SLASH IN FEDERAL TAXES NOW ADVOCATED

Smoot Suggests Plan to Reduce Revenue Half
Billion Dollars

INTERVIEWS MELLON

Would Exempt Incomes
Under $2,000 From
Payment

Washington, Oct. 18.—A half-billion-dollar cut in tax revenue is planned by Reed Smoot, ranking Republican on the senate finance committee, he revealed at the white house.

Senator Smoot proposes a reduction of surtaxes from the maximum of 50 per cent to 33 1/3 per cent; exemption from taxation of incomes below $2,000 and probably $3,000; the scaling off of $100,000,000 on the taxes of incomes from $3,000 to $5,000, and of another hundred million on the incomes of $5,000 to $10,000; the elimination of the so-called discriminatory tax, and a reduction of $75,000,000 on certain special taxes.

Senator Smoot held a long conference on the subject of tax reduction with Secretary of the Treasury Mellon prior to calling on President Coolidge. The reduction of the maximum surtax rate, it was intimated, was in the nature of a compromise with Secretary Mellon, who held that the rate should be 25 per cent. Mr. Smoot believes that this reduction would be found too great if other reductions are to be made.

Senator Smoot asserted that he was in thorough accord with Secretary Mellon in the idea of making the reduction as large as possible. He added that it would actually mean more revenue for the government, as it would check the flood of investment in tax free securities and put vast sums into profitable and taxable enterprises. This, it was stated, would more than offset what would appear to be a loss.

The reduction in the surtax rates with the other reductions named would cut the government's revenue about half a billion annually, the senator said, but, he added, the saving would in no way embarrass the budget bureau unless congress authorizes some unusual appropriations. The sum actually can be saved under the present scheme of economies in the government, he believes.

Senator Smoot pointed out, however, that revision of the taxes should not be undertaken at once. He stated that it would prove necessary to make a more careful survey of the schedule, and that this can not be completed for several months. Before effecting any sweeping changes, it was pointed out, it will, of course, be necessary to learn what congress proposes to authorize in the way of expenditures, and, if the present appropriations are exceeded, how the money is to be raised.

FORD TOO VALUABLE FOR PRESIDENT IS EDISON'S OPINION

New York, Oct. 18.—Henry Ford is too valuable to the country as an industrialist to be elected president, Thomas A. Edison said. "It might spoil him," the East Orange wonder worker added in an address, at the opening of the annual electrical and industrial exposition. Edison cited the eight factories that Ford operates on the River Rouge in Michigan, where men and women work at good wages, but still have time to raise gardens and crops, was one reason why Ford should not be diverted from his present work to that of fussing with congress over postmaster jobs and pork barrels. "What's the matter with that system?" he asked of Ford's works plan. "If he does that long enough maybe the whole of industry will try it and things will be better all around. But I doubt if that system could be legislated into effect. It has to grow."

UTILITIES BOARD ENJOINED

Columbus, Oct. 18.—The Ohio public utilities commission was enjoined from enforcing its order requiring the Ohio Bell Telephone company to unify telephone service in Canton by Oct. 19, 1923, under the present Bell rates, by Judge Sater of the United States district court. The hearing will be in Columbus Oct. 27. The confiscation of property in violation of its rights under the federal constitution is charged by the company.

PROHIBITION ISSUE SPLITS WIDE OPEN GOVERNORS' CONFERENCE

West Baden Springs, Indiana, Oct. 18.—Prohibition today split wide open the governors conference. In spirited discussions, showing aside those listed in the regular schedule for the meeting—taxation and agricultural relief—lines were drawn sharply between the so-called dry and liberal state executives on the liquor law issue. This subject became the principal theme of the conference.

On all sides, particularly informal gatherings, the national dry act and the lat and order conference with President Coolidge at the White House Saturday were the leading topics of debate.

Wide confusion existed among the state chiefs on the challenge of Governor Pinchot, of Pennsylvania, charging President Coolidge personally with full responsibility for the enforcement of the dry law.

In characteristic Rooseveltian fashion, the Pennsylvania governor, who acted as spokesman for the "bone dry" element, denounced the present system of enforcement and demanded that in order to make America thoroughly arid, the federal administration extend greater and more harmonious cooperation to state agencies in running down bootlegging and suppressing illicit booze traffic.

He launched verbal rights and lefts at the methods used by the prohibition unit in Washington, in issuing liquor withdrawal permits. Thousands of the permits, he said, are being forged, with the result that liquor is being flooded over the country in violation of the laws. To ask the states to stop this traffic, unless more strenuous efforts are made to wipe out faking, he declared, "imposes a burden upon the states that is stupendous."

Pinchot promised to lay bare this condition to President Coolidge at the White House gathering with the

SNAP SHOTS

James B. McLachlan, former secretary of the United Mine Workers, District No. 26, was found guilty of a libelous letter during the recent strike of steel and coal workers in Nova Scotia.

John Weber, 54, farmer, was shot and killed by his son Samuel, 24, at Owensboro, Ky.

Robert Sanders, 30, one of three men held at San Bernardino, Cal., has confessed to the murder of Patrolman David H. Crowther of Salt Lake City.

National council of Congregational churches went on record with few dissenting votes as approving the merger of Presbyterian and Congregational churches in the United States.

GO OVER ENDEAVORMENT

Cleveland, Oct. 18.—A young man was injured, one probably fatally, when an automobile in which they were riding to work collided with another car and plunged over a 50-foot embankment in Rockefeller park. Peter Spahr, 22, the driver, sustained a fractured skull.

Wash., was fatally shot in a roadhouse near that city by Winifred Gibbons, a pretty 21-year-old divorcee, while his bride of two months was in another part of the inn. Lacelle, in his dying statement, told the police he had never seen Miss Gibbons until he encountered her in the roadhouse. Miss Gibbons, who is a stenographer, insisted that she had known Lacelle for years under the name of "Bill Williams."

additional warning that he "intended to speak straight from the shoulder. The more liberal forces around Gov. Parker of Louisiana, when Pinchot remarked that the "fight against liquor is just begun," Parker prophesied that "prohibition seems certain to become the major issue in the 1924 presidential campaign and in both parties."

Parker held little hope for "100 per cent enforcement."

He thought that the most suitable way to rid the country of "the prohibition mess" would be to repeal the Volstead act to permit manufacture of wine and beer, this being sanctioned under strictest governmental supervision.

FORMER PREMIER DECLARES EUROPE IS NOW EXHAUSTED

Chicago, Oct. 18.—David Lloyd George spoke on reparations in his address at the International amphitheater here.

The former premier, who had been confined to his hotel, recovering from a cold, was refreshed by his long rest. An audience of 12,000 jammed the hall.

Launching into his speech the former premier declared that Europe is suffering from exhaustion and that the most serious disturbance now is the question of reparations. "Europe is like a ragged man, standing in front of a plate-glass window of a well stocked store," he said.

Lloyd George announced that Britain is pressing for a reasonable settlement with Germany, had no special interest in being tender to Germany, but because to follow harsh methods and demand more than Germany is able to pay "is the worst way of attaining that end."

Lloyd George's address was based on the theme that before further steps are taken to force reparations from Germany there should be an examination by a commission of experts to determine Germany's ability to pay.

Apparently none the worse for his appearance before the greatest audience of his American trip thus far, David Lloyd George today took up the itinerary which was threatened by the slight illness brought on by fatigue. His program called for a visit to the tomb of Abraham Lincoln at Springfield, Illinois, the party leaving Chicago on its special train at 10 a. m. continuing to St. Louis, next stop of the journey.

CAUGHT IN ELEVATOR SHAFT

Cleveland, Oct. 18.—While repairing an elevator at the seventh floor of the Ulmer building, Raymond Fenzel, 25, assistant engineer at the building, was killed when his head was caught and crushed in the door of the lift.

CARLYLE GARAGE WITH 18 AUTOS ARE DESTROYED

Blaze Early Thursday
Morning Damages Telephone Service

ORIGIN IS UNKNOWN

Fire is Discovered at
1:30—Nearby Buildings Saved.

Fire destroyed the Ed Carlyle garage, Xenia and Corry streets, Yellow Springs, early Thursday morning, burning up 18 automobiles and ruining telephone service in the village, occasioning a loss estimated at $30,000.

The garage building, a frame structure owned by C. S. Shelton, was burned to the ground with its entire contents, only ashes marking the place where it stood Thursday. Heroic work on the part of the Yellow Springs Fire Department under Chief Perry Hackett, saved the Littleton building and the Dr. William Haffner building across the street, from destruction.

Cables of the Ohio Bell Telephone Company were burned through impairing wire service in and out of the village. The Littleton building in which the telephone exchange is located on the second floor, was scorched so intensely by the heat that the window glass melted and dropped from its sashes, driving Mrs. Pearl Lingo, night operator, from the switchboard after she had turned in the alarm.

The origin of the conflagration is unknown conjecture placing the cause at a short circuit of wires in an automobile or a carelessly thrown cigarette or cigar stub. The blaze was discovered at 1:30 o'clock by Maurice Littleton, who notified Mrs. Lingo in the exchange. She turned in the alarm that brought the fire department on the scene. No help from outside fire departments was sought.

Firemen confined the fire to the garage building and kept a continual play of water on the Littleton and Haffner buildings to prevent them breaking into flames. Mrs. Lingo stayed at her post in the exchange until the windows fell out, when she was forced to flee. Of the automobiles burned up in the garage, less than half were insured.

The following machines were destroyed: a Ford truck and a Fordson tractor, owned by the village of Yellow Springs; a service truck owned by John Snider; a Ford sedan owned by Leon Reed; a Marmon touring car, owned by H. F. Mumma; a Ford coupe owned by T. W. Mock; a Studebaker roadster owned by Malcolm Grinnell; a Ford truck owned by William Glosinger; a Ford coupe owned by Chas. Payne; a Ford coupe owned by John Phillips; a Reo touring car owned by W. A. Alexander; a Ford roadster owned by Gayle Price; a Ford special speedster owned by Herman Holmes; a Paige touring car owned by John Holland and four machines owned by Ed Carlyle, proprietor of the garage, including one new Chevrolet truck. Carlyle is agent for the Chevrolet car in the village.

Carlyle's loss was not covered by insurance, but C. S. Shelton, owner of the building, was almost entirely protected. He announced Thursday he would erect another building on the site.

Loss to the telephone company was estimated at $2,000 Thursday, including burned out cables and wires. When service was impaired by the fire, line men were sent to the village at four o'clock Thursday morning and by daylight, full service was repaired for use. Full service was expected to be resumed some time Thursday.

Because the fire burned through the cable of the Springfield and Xenia Traction Company car service was held up until 7:40 o'clock, pending repair of the line.

EXPECT ARRESTS IN BOMBING OUTRAGE

Stuebenville, O. Oct. 18.—"We expect arrests," was the reply of Jefferson County officials today to the protests lodged with Governor Vic Donahey by residents of Smithfield that the recent bombing of the home of Marshal Charles Pearce was not being investigated.

Prosecuting Attorney Pearce and Sheriff Edward Lucas denied that action of the Smithfield residents was "unlawful" and that they acted without knowledge of the facts.

DUKE IS HELD FOR DEBT SETTLEMENT

Duke of Manchester

William Angus Drago Montague, Duke of Manchester, has been held in Montreal, Can., on a writ prohibiting him from leaving the country until he settles a board bill of $1,438 owed to the Hotel Mount Royal. The hotel took the action when it was reported he intended sailing for England. The Duke's mother was the beautiful Consuela de Valle, of Ravensworth, La., and his wife was Miss Helen Zimmermann, of Cincinnati.

ADMINISTRATION'S PLANS FOR AIDING FARMER OPPOSED

Washington, Oct. 18.—The administration's plans for relieving farm distress in the wheat belt are scheduled for tough sledding in the new Congress. This became certain today when Democratic and Republican farm bloc members apparently joined hands to attack the government relief program.

Senator Duncan U. Fletcher of Florida, voiced a Democratic protest against the Coolidge plan for organizing cooperative marketing associations which are to be the basis of government farm relief. His attack came only 24 hours after the plan was condemned by Senator Edwin P. Ladd, Republican, of North Dakota. Both are prominent farm bloc members.

While Democrats and Republicans alike offered their own solutions for farm depression both were emphatic in predicting failure for the administration program. Their attitude indicated a protracted battle will develop in the next Congress over just what to do for the farmer.

ROOT IS PROBABLE AS SUCCESSOR TO COLONEL HARVEY

London, Oct. 13.—Apparently authentic advices from Washington that Elihu Root, former secretary of state, probably would be appointed ambassador to England, succeeding George Harvey, caused much surprise here today. It was generally anticipated that the post would go to Solicitor General James M. Beck who has proclaimed his friendship for England in many speeches.

The foreign office refused to comment, but it was learned that officials regard Root as a man of great ability.

FORMER XENIAN GETS APPOINTMENT

Columbus, O. Oct. 18.—Mrs. Margaret Elton, 53, New Vienna, Clinton county, was appointed matron of the Girls Industrial school, Delaware, by State Welfare Director Harper. She stood highest in the recent civil service examination for the position.

Mrs. Elton taught school in Highland county for 13 years, was five years matron of the Highland county jail, and for nine years was chief matron of the Soldiers and Sailors Orphans Home, Xenia, while her husband, J. P. Elton was superintendent.

CHICAGO ATTORNEY QUILTS CASE

New York Oct. 18.—The Stokes divorce case produced its daily sensation when Charles Erbsstein, Mrs. Helen Elwood Stokes' Chicago attorney, quit the case, abruptly walking from the courtroom after a run-in with Samuel Untermyer, chief of her New York counsel.

DELAY IN REPARATIONS ISSUE FEARED; MORE RED ACTIVITIES IN NATION

Dictator Declares War on Radical Saxony and Moves
Troops Into That State to Disarm Communist Bands Operating There.

Berlin, Oct. 18.—Ominous clouds gathered low over Germany today pointing the way to grave developments in the immediate future.

Pessimism has been deepened by the summary rejection of the government's proposals by France and Belgium. It is feared that the blunt action of the French and Belgians will delay a settlement of the Ruhr reparations issue.

Various disorders were reported from various quarters. Red terror grips Saxony and re-inforcements of Reichswehr are being moved into that state.

Berlin, Oct. 18.—Dictator Stresemann in effect declared war upon "red Saxony."

Twenty-eight battalions of the reichswehr from vicinity of Berlin and other Prussian garrisons are moving to reinforce General Mueller and his fifteen battalions already in Saxony.

That is the answer of Dictator Stresemann to the refusal of Premier Zeigler's communistic-socialistic government in Saxony to disband the red army units, who are charged with having created a reign of terror throughout all Saxony.

The Saxon government's defiance of Berlin authority was further emphasized by a speech made by the new communist minister of finance, Boetticher, in which he declared that a "red dictatorship is the only salvation of Germany."

At a special session of the Berlin cabinet, Stresemann announced his determination to enforce the authority of the central government once for all, and to suppress the irresponsible, radical and irregular military organizations in Saxony which are openly countenanced by the Saxon cabinet in defiance of Berlin.

Boetticher, it is reported, also ordered all Saxon bankers to confer with him with a view of levying a compulsory loan. It is asserted that not a single banker appeared in response to the demand.

Reports received by the Berlin government that a number of leading industrial captains in Saxony had been arrested by red communist detachments to be held as hostages, added to the determination of Stresemann to put an end to such conditions of affairs in Saxony.

Reports from Dresden say that Premier Zeigler declared in the Saxon diet that he would not comply with any of General Mueller's demands. Central organizations of the Saxon trades unions are said to have announced that they would tear up the railway tracks and declare a general strike if General Mueller attempts to move the reichswehr.

Warned by hunger demonstrations and plunderings in numerous cities by mobs of unemployed, which only the most energetic action by the police prevented from ending in serious bloodshed and greater looting, city and Prussian state authorities are rushing measures to relieve the most pressing cases of want.

Additional soup kitchens are to be established at once at which the hungry can get food free or at nominal prices if they can pay anything. All persons receiving poverty doles are each to receive a special dole of one billion marks, which, however, is less than 20 cents. Feeding children in public schools at public expense is to be resumed immediately. A special supply of free milk for infants and prospective mothers is to begin Monday. Cold storage meats will be sold by government agencies below the market price.

APPOINTMENT MADE

Columbus, Oct. 18.—Attorney Herman A. Schafer, Bridgeport, today was appointed head of the new bus department in the State Utilities Commission by State Commerce Director Locher. The salary is $3,000 a year.

The appointment is provisional, subject to a civil service examination.

COUPLE FATALLY INJURED

Toledo, Oct. 18.—Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Werner of Tiffin, O., were probably fatally injured and four others severely injured when a city car ran into their auto as the party was entering the city. Harry Gallimore of Cleveland, who was repairing his auto along the side of the road, witnessed the accident. He was showered with glass.

Berlin, Oct. 18.—Convinced that France is determined to keep the Ruhr and Rhineland rather than get reparations, Chancellor Stresemann, through his personal organ, Die Zeit, issued a deft to France and announced that Germany refuses to resume the reparations coal payments.

"From the negotiations of the last few days," says Die Zeit, "France must have realized that the German government declines to have its political decisions, either in regard to the Ruhr or reparations, dictated from Paris and Brussels. The German government will be guided only by German interests and nothing else. No dictation will change its course."

The occupation forces are preparing to stay for a long time. The returning railway workers have been asked to work for an "independent" Rhine republic and to contribute to funds for the establishment of the republic.

TRUMP CARD IN DIVORCE TRIAL USED BY STOKES

Former U. S. Minister To Roumania Called to
the Stand

New York, Oct. 18.—The trump card of W. E. D. Stokes, 73 year old millionaire, was played today in his suit to divorce his beautiful young wife, Helen Elwood Stokes.

Horace G. Knowles, former United States minister to Roumania, Bolivia and Peru, swore that "to the best of his knowledge and belief," he saw the titan-haired defendant in Wallace's Fifth avenue apartment.

Edgar T. Wallace, San Francisco oil man, named by Stokes as the corespondent who won the affections of pretty Mrs. Helen Elwood Stokes, wife of the aged millionaire, decided to fight back. After five years of silence, other than flat denial of Stokes' charges, Wallace today commissioned Charles Erbsstein, Chicago lawyer, associated with Samuel Untermyer in Mrs. Stokes' defense, to "act."

Wallace telegraphic instructions to Erbsstein were brief.

"Take any action you deem best," he instructed the attorney.

Erbsstein announced he would await the outcome of the present divorce suit, before moving in Wallace's behalf. It was expected, however, that Erbsstein would join Untermyer in a demand on District Attorney J. A. Hanton, of New York, to call a grand jury probe of Stokes' activities in the case with a view to securing indictments on a charge of conspiracy to defame "not only Mrs. Stokes, but Wallace as well."

AUTO DRIVES INTO ENGINE; FOUR HURT

Akron, O. Oct. 18.—An automobile whose driver, James Bands, was more than half asleep, ran into a moving B. and O. engine at Krumroy road crossing early this morning.

Eva Hinsman, 20, living at a local hotel, the only girl in the car, suffered a fractured skull and is in city hospital. Bands, Louis Smith, 22 and Charles Wright, 21 all of Akron, were slightly injured.

The youths were arrested. They told Deputy Sheriff Harry Rawlings the girl was induced by them to leave another auto in which she was riding with a male companion. The party of four then drove around most of the night with no particular objective. About 4 o'clock, while all of them dozed in the car, it collided with the engine, which was slowly moving across the road.

INJUNCTION SUITS MAY BE FILED IN GAS SITUATION

Possibility that injunction suits may be resorted to in order to prevent the Logan Natural Gas Company from carrying out its threat to refuse renewal of its contract with the Jantha Light and Fuel Company and thus keep many towns and villages from receiving gas this winter, is now being expressed.

Refusal to renew the contract would cut off the gas supply to Osborn, Fairfield and Yellow Springs in Greene County, Greenville in Darke County, Eaton in Preble County and Brookville, in Montgomery County. The present contract will expire October 31, and if not renewed, the gas supplies will be cut off then.

City Solicitor J. A. Pinney of this city, who is also counsel for the village of Yellow Springs, believes the courts would sustain an injunction to prevent the gas shortage, if that plan is resorted to. Greene County Commissioners granted the Logan Company a franchise to cross county boundaries in 1903, with the stipulation the company should furnish gas to the Greene County villages which are now threatened to be left without gas if the refusal to renew the contract is carried out.

Renewal of the present contract several years ago, resulted in the Jantha Company being forced to raise its rate to consumers in Greene County so that gas users in Osborn, Fairfield and Yellow Springs now pay more for natural gas than any other places in the county. Phillip Nash, dean of Antioch College, said the college would be forced to build a plant to manufacture gas for domestic purposes if the natural supply is shut off.

Morris D. Rice, Osborn attorney, is counsel for the villages of Osborn and Fairfield. Cedarville is also facing a serious gas question with the ultimatum presented the village council by pony, that an increased rate for the first thousand feet of gas would have to be approved by the council or the supply suspended.

The company asks passage of an ordinance fixing a minimum price of 95 cents instead of 50 cents for the first thousand feet, to take care of service expenses to small consumers. Citizens protested against passage of the ordinance and the council tabled the measure. Representatives of the gas company then set the regulator for Cedarville at only three ounces pressure and the village has suffered from low gas.

The proposition is the same as presented to the Xenia City Commission some time ago. The commission here tabled the proposed ordinance without action.

TELEPHONE COMPANY PUSH IMPROVEMENTS

Workmen employed by The Ohio Bell Telephone Company on a huge improvement program which will extend the underground cable facilities and eliminate may poles, have extended their operations to the center of the city. South Detroit street between Main and Second on the west side of the street, is now receiving the attention of workmen who are tearing up the pavement preparatory to laying cables. They have progressed to some extent on South Detroit street from the Pennsylvania Railroad bridge to Home Avenue and Hill streets where new poles have been installed to take care of traffic on those streets and old poles will eventually be removed.

The company expects to consume a year and expend $30,000 in the service improvement program, which includes extension of private lines to outlying sections in the city limits now served by rural lines.

DEFENDANT CHANGES PLEA IN LIQUOR CASE IN COLUMBUS

Wheeling, W. Va. Oct. 18.—A hunchshell was dropped in federal court when Dr. W. D. Frank, of Columbus, O. one of the nine defendants indicted in the alcohol case in federal court, arose and asked permission to change his plea "not guilty" to "guilty." It was granted.

Frank has been without counsel during the trial and steadfastly refused to have the court appoint an attorney to represent him. He is the third to enter pleas. Cecil H. Kerns and Tony Saad having pleaded guilty when the case was called. Defendants in this case include former Wheeling City Treasurer Samuel K. Johnson and other Wheeling, Martins Ferry and Columbus men.

The taking of evidence began in the case October third, and revolves around disposal of a carload of alcohol here from Hermitage, Tenn. E. J. Neaton, U. S. chemist, of Columbus, in trial today testified that analysis of gin, seized at Xenia, O. showed it to contain pure grain alcohol. The alcohol used, the government contends, was part of the shipment distributed here by the defendants.

The government will likely not complete its case the present week.

Tony Saad was arrested here under the name of Tony Cyruse, it is believed. Charles Weasel, also involved in the case, and who is believed to have converted the grain alcohol into gin, was also arrested here, when a truck load of the booze was captured here enroute from Columbus to Dayton. Both were turned over to federal authorities at Dayton and local officials had no further part to play in the roundup. Kerns, according to Prosecutor J. K. Williamson, was a ring leader in the alcohol conspiracy. Prosecutor Williamson said the investigation was begun in Dayton. He did not know why part of the cases were being tried in Wheeling.

Styles BY LENORE

In discussing clothes for young women, especially as related to school time, a certain Fifth Avenue

shop in one of its large newspaper advertisements made the following statement which is so true, that it

Made only of wheat and barley scientifically baked 20 hours — Supplying Vitamin-B and mineral elements. How can Grape-Nuts be other than a wonderfully appetizing, healthful food? "There's a Reason"

seems a service to broadcast the idea. This is the statement:

"Too often is the art of fashion regarded as frivolity at school, and a girl graduates schooled in the arts but unsophisticated in their application to her own life and social success."

It is not at all uncommon to find the college girl actually dowdy in her appearance, and whether the fault is due to a self-complacent indifference to fashion or to ignorance of how to dress becomingly, the fault is equally serious in so far as it not alone detracts from her charm as a woman but often actually handicaps her in her business or social contacts.

Tasteful dressing and a conservative fashionableness are so important an expression of culture that it would seem extremely more desirable, and infinitely fairer, for schools to teach the principles of how to dress cleverly rather than write fashion down into the "Thou Shalt-Nots," as so many of them almost always do.

Lovely, green bone acorn button give an individual look to a new kind of navy blue twill frock, which is as practical as it is good-looking. The mannish shirt front and the sleeve trimming are of white crepe de chine, and detachable. The back may be made belted and slightly bloused, or it may be kept as straight as the front.

For 12 years Mrs. Cook had gas on the stomach and was nervous and short of breath. Finally she took simple glycerine, buckthorn bark, etc., as mixed in Adierika and it did her a world of good. Most medicines act only on the lower bowel but Adierika acts on both upper and lower bowel and brings out all gasses and poisons. Helps any case gas on the stomach in TEN minutes. ## GIVES TWICE THE HEAT AT HALF THE COST

Burns Oil In Any Stove

A wonderful new burner which works in any coal or wood stove or furnace is the proud achievement of the International Heating Company, 119 South Fourteenth St., Dept. 3368, St. Louis, Mo. This remarkably simple and inexpensive invention heats stove and even in half the time and does away with all the dirt, ashes and drudgery of using coal or wood. It gives the convenience of city gas at half the cost. It can be put into any stove in a few minutes and gives a tremendous heat controlled by a simple valve. The present high price of coal makes it a great money saver. The manufacturers offer to send this remarkable invention on 30 days trial to any reader of this paper. They are just now making a special low price offer. They also want agents. Write them today.—Adv.

Grid-Dust

By
Ray Higgins

In spite of the popular fallacy that a football team is built around the backfield, we hold to the conclusion that a clever and aggressive center has about as much to do with making a successful grid combination, as any other single unit. No one can deny that the playing of Bob Yeakley last year and the year before, was a big factor in developing the championship eleven that represented Central High. Yeakley was a faithful and accurate passer who could handle himself on the offense, opened huge holes in the line when necessary, but above all, was the type of defensive player that worries an offense to death.

Time after time Yeakley has smeared the play of opponents, by clever charging, often flattening the quarterback before he could pass the ball. His charging resulted in many fumbles, and demoralized the entire attack of opponents.

When Coach "Puss" Burner looked over his proteges for this year's team, he found the development of a center one of his big tasks. He selected Parks, a first year candidate, for the job and the lad showed up well in practice. Under fire however, the freshman showed the lack of experience and weight necessary to take Yeakley's place and the mentor was forced to begin further experimentation.

An experiment last week found Bill Horner at the snapperback's station, and the veteran utility man seemed to have found his place. His passing was careful and he possessed many of the same aggressive qualities on defense that made Yeakley a star. With Horner straddling the ball, it looks as if the coach's worries in that direction were solved for the moment. Parks on the other hand, will probably be strung along as a utility center with a view to developing him into a regular for seasons to come. With three more years ahead of him, the youngster should profit by his early start and experience and solve the center problem on teams of the future.

Greenville High, which team the blue and white eleven will meet at Greenville's Friday afternoon, did not open its season until last Saturday when the Darke County aggregation defeated Bradford, 27 to 0.

West Milton had also defeated Bradford this season, and the scores may indicate that Greenville is on a par with the West Milton gang. This infers that Greenville is not out of the class of Burner's charges and with the benefit of the greater experience the Xenia team has, Central High should have an excellent opportunity to break into the win column Friday.

RANDALL MAKING GOOD AS MEMBER OF COLLEGE TEAM

Ernest "Tad" Randall, former Central High School star, seems to be making good on the Wilmington College football team during his first year at that school.

Randall has performed at half-back during the greater part of both games the team has played so far, and seems to have won a permanent berth on the squad. Wilmington, will play Muskingum at New Concord Friday afternoon. Injuries to Cal Zeigler and Shaw two other backfield men have given further assurance that Randall has earned a position on the team. Shaw, a halfback, sustained a broken leg in the opening game with Purdue University, at Lafayette. Zeigler had the ligaments torn in his knee in the University of Detroit game last week, and will probably be laid up for the rest of the season.

The injuries cut the list of backfield candidates down to Hal "Squirt" Fisher, former Ohio Northern captain, Johnny Nowald, Randall, Middleton, Bennett and Winegardner, a new candidate, who showed up this week from Lima, besides several backfield candidates now on the second string squad, who are showing up well.

Randall has shown much improvement over his high school days under the direction of Coach "Shifty" Bolen. Always fast on his feet he is furnishing Wilmington fans with many end run thrills, and has also developed the knack of forward passing while running or off balance. He made nine of these passes good in the Detroit game. The Xenia athlete is tackling deadily this season and has developed into a crack defensive backfield man.

KID GLEASON QUITS SOX

Chicago, Oct. 18.—William (Kid) Gleason, manager of the Chicago White Sox, handed his resignation as pilot of the club to Owner Charles A. Comiskey and it was accepted. Gleason told Mr. Comiskey that he was discouraged with the showing of the club this year and wanted to get out.

EAST HIGH'S NEW FOOTBALL TEAM TO MAKE DEBUT MONDAY

The absolutely new East High football team will make its debut at Cox Memorial Athletic Field next Monday afternoon meeting the Wilberforce Academy eleven, it is announced.

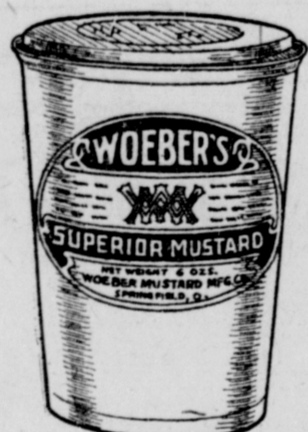

The contest will be the first of a three game series. When East High takes the gridiron Monday it will be the first time that school has attempted to put a gridiron combination in the field, and much interest attends the initial efforts.

The team is coached by Lloyd Lewis Wilberforce University's first track star, who is a member of the faculty at East High. Coach Lewis has been working faithfully with a green squad in an effort to introduce the grid game to East High. His efforts are said to have been fruitful, and even should the new eleven drop a few games this season it is anticipated that the sport will have been successfully introduced.

A number of promising athletes compose the squad. Bernard and Dwight Ware, brothers, are fighting it out for the full backing job. Smith Sayles and Baker are struggling for the two halfback positions and Hayes Taylor is the most likely looking candidate for quarterback.

Jones, Cyrus Taylor, Williams and Buford compose a quartet of athletes trying for jobs at the ends. H. Gaines, Charles and Caldwell Kimbro are making active bids for the tackle positions and Byrd, Douglas, Lynn, Phoenix and Thomas are candidates for the guard positions. Dickinson and Raymond are alternating at center.

Through the kindness of school officials and business men, the new

PAPYRUS IN TRIAL WORKOUT COVERS MILE IN 1:38 2-5

New York, 18.—Papyrus, England's champion three-year-old, ran a mile in 1:38 2-5 at Belmont Park this morning in his final workout for the international match race Saturday with Zev, and did it so easily that there was a doleful shaking of heads as the clockers pocketed their watches.

It was less than an exercise gallop. It was just a romp, the English colt merely breezing through the distance with hardly an urge from the hands of Come On Steve O'Donoghue, England's premier jockey.

The performance was so improved that track odds quickly went to even money with little, if any, Zev money in sight. It was the common impression of those who watched the trial that Zev will have to be a greater horse than anyone ever suspected him

AUTOMOBILE GOES 27 MILES ON AIR

A simple self-regulating device that mixes the proper amount of air with gasoline at the proper time has been invented by J. A. Stransky, 91 Third St. Pukwana, South Dakota. An automobile equipped with this wonderful device went 27 miles on a gallon of gasoline that was formerly making only 30. It can be installed by anyone in five minutes. Mr. Stransky wants agents and is willing to send a sample at his own risk. Write him today.—Adv.

of being to outrun Papyrus Saturday. Papyrus' time for the mile was close to the track record, but there were other features more impressive about the trial than showed on the dial of the timers' watches. In the first place, he ran at least half the distance into the teeth of a headwind. In the second he started very slowly and easily contrary to his wont. He freely allowed Bar Gold, his stablemate, to step out to a three-length lead, then increasing his speed without apparent effort, picked up the other horse at the end of the back stretch, galloped side by side with him along the long turn and then, half way up the stretch, stepped out at his best and passed the judges stand four lengths in front with Donoghue's hand clutching firmly at the reins.

New Sedan

Changes featured in the new Ford Sedan make it a better looking, roomier car.

A higher radiator with a trim apron at its base lends dignity befitting a closed car. The higher hood and enlarged cowling curving gracefully to the dash give a stylish sweep to its body lines, and afford additional leg room for occupants of the front seat.

All body fittings—window regulators, door grips, door latch levers, door lock, dome light—are finished in nickel. The upholstery carries a fine dark line on a soft brown background that does not easily show dust or dirt. Silk window curtains to harmonize for the three rear windows enhance the style of the car and add to the comfort of its passengers. See the new Sedan and other new Ford body styles at our showroom.

"I know what I am talking about when I say that Ohio farmers are making a rapid recovery and do not want any experimental national legislation such as price fixing of wheat. The real 'low down' is that men in public positions are more anxious to obtain the farmer vote than the farmer is desirous of having national legislation enacted to take money out of the federal treasury for performing experiments of doubtful value." Representative James T. Hegg.

ADULT PROBATION FOR PRISONERS IS URGED AT MEETING

Extension of adult probation work which was strongly advocated by Judge Charles W. Hoffman, Cincinnati, in an address at the Ohio Welfare Conference in Lima, was one of the features which particularly impressed the Rev. William H. Tilford, one of the local delegation attending the conference, who returned home Wednesday afternoon.

Judge Hoffman said that Massachusetts has now more men on probation than it has in its prisons. That state and New York do more of the adult probation work than any other states in the union, according to the speaker. He declared that probation will do more toward reforming the man or woman, who is not actually criminal but who committed an offense in the heat of anger, than a prison sentence will do, and will frequently make them valuable members of society.

The Rev. Mr. Tilford said that a number of divisional conferences featured the assembly. Among them was a meeting of superintendents and matrons of county infirmaries which was attended by Superintendent and Mrs. D. E. Crow of the Greene County Infirmary. Representatives of county boards of visitors met with that body for the first time.

The necessity of promoting a better feeling of co-operation between members of county visiting boards and superintendents and matrons of county infirmaries and homes was emphasized at the conference. Another matter which was brought out at the conference was the possibility of securing the co-operation of the social resources of the county for the benefit of inmates of the county infirmaries in an effort to make life pleasanter for them. The Rev. Mr. Tilford was the only local delegate who returned home, others waiting for the conclusion of the meeting.

DISCUSSES TRAFFIC WORK BEFORE CLUB

Traffic problems and phases of the work were presented by A. H. Finlay to members of the Xenia Kiwanis Club at the regular meeting of the club held at the Elks' Lodge, Wednesday evening.

Mr. Finlay discussed present traffic rates as applying to shipments of raw material and manufactured goods, touched on the activities of a traffic department of an industry, and recounted a few personal experiences in getting shipments through and tracing lost cars.

At the conclusion of the talk members of the club directed questions at the speaker concerning the subject he had handled.

A second golf tournament among members of the club, will be played off before next Wednesday. The same teams, as drawn several weeks ago, will stand, it was announced, and the individual players will meet the opponents they played in the last match. Matches can be played off anytime before next Wednesday evening. Results will be announced at the meeting next Wednesday at the Elks' Lodge.

TOBACCO GROWERS OF COUNTY TO HEAR ADDRESS BY CO-OPERATIVE ORGANIZER

David Bill, field organizer for the Miami Valley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association, will address the several tobacco growers of the county, at a meeting to be held at Bellbrook Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Mr. Bill will discuss the tobacco growers' contract, and the advantages of selling tobacco co-operatively.

The Miami Valley is the only producers' territory, which is not selling the product through a co-operative pool. Growers over the entire valley are signing the contract, and it is thought to be certain to secure enough signatures to make the pool an assured success.

Greene County has only 32 growers this year, and has the smallest volume of tobacco in the Miami Valley. Every grower in the county is expected to attend the meeting.

A WIFE'S STORY

By Jane Phelps

SUSPICIONS THAT WILL NOT BE DENIED

Chapter LVI

The girls back in their own room, and my suspicions aroused—in spite of my reiterated assertions that it was impossible that Paul was plying so unholly a trade—I watched from the rear window as soon as they were in bed, I saw no rockets, but the dim form of ships still stood out faintly against the horizon. I recalled all I had read of the fleets carrying illicit liquor, of the rum runners. The dock with the awkward row-boat showed plainly in the moonlight. Was the dock built for a purpose other than pleasure? Was the boat big and roomy for any other reason than the safety of the girls? Vainly I tried to banish such thoughts, to make myself really believe Paul incapable of such a thing as they suggested.

But, the money, its source. All I had read or heard of immense sums made by bootleggers came to me. Of poor, ignorant men, heretofore living in poverty suddenly amassing great riches, of men high in club and social life being tempted by the great monetary rewards gained by breaking the law and dealing in liquors—good if they could get them, bad, poisonous, if they could not. Some, a few, had been arrested, were either out on heavy bail, or languishing in jail.

The picture frightened me, and intensely I longed for Paul's return from Canada! Wasn't that where much of the liquor came from? Now Paul's visits to Canada took on a sinister meaning. They had been increasingly frequent of late, and thinking this I remembered that always, a few days after such visits, he had been unusually opulent giving me more money than usual, or spending more extravagantly.

Paul had brought no liquor into the house of that I was certain. I had been pleased that he had not kept even his usual small supply because of Joan, who when she had it was obliged to get it elsewhere than in our home.

Thoughts of Dave Logan came to me. Oh, why had he done as he had? Habit was strong upon me, and I longed to talk with him as I so often had done to question him—there was no one else. My quiet retired life had given me no opportunity to make close friends, although I had many new acquaintances. I thought of Evelyn Markham, but dismissed the idea at once. I knew she never had approved of Paul that George thought him a visionary without stability. Finally in despair I sought my bed, only to lie wide awake until morning brought its duties and the necessity of hiding my anxiety from the girls.

"Perhaps Paul will come today," I said to myself as I went about my work. Had I known where to find him I should have sent for him, so impatient was I to have him refute the horrible charge Clem Sanders made. But he had given me no address. I was helpless. So the long day passed until late afternoon. Joan was in her room. Laura had gone to call on friends. I heard the whirr of a motor and rushed to the door, Paul at last.

But instead of seeing Paul, three strange men were in the motor. They came up the walk onto the porch while I remained standing in the doorway.

"Mr. Norwood, Paul Norwood lives here?" It was more of a statement than a question.

"Yes, but he is away at present. Is there anything I can do for you? I am Mrs. Norwood."

"I am sorry," the same man spoke. "But we have a search warrant, and must search the house."

"Search the house! What for?" I asked in amazement.

"We have reason to believe your husband has been engaged in disposing of contraband liquors that he is a bootlegger."

"Wh we haven't even a bottle in the house for our own use!" I declared barring the way, humiliated almost to the point of tears, shocked and frightened by this new proof that Paul was breaking the law.

"Then you have nothing to fear" the man said not unkindly as he brushed by me, followed by one of the men. The third one remained outside. Joan had heard the voices and appeared at the head of the stairs, her eyes wide with horror.

Tomorrow—Joan Knows Her Father is

A Bootlegger
